Local, national and global gains in reaching the HIV/AIDS 90-90-90 goals in vulnerable populations: Where are we now and how can student's shape their academic experience for a career in the HIV/AIDS field?

A panel discussion featuring:

W. David Hardy, MD, AAHIVS - Senior Director, Evidence-Based Practices Whitman-Walker Health

Naomi Seiler, JD - Associate Research Professor George Washington University

Richard J. Wolitski, PhD - Director Office of HIV/AIDS and Infectious Disease Policy

Lynne M. Mofenson, MD - Senior HIV Technical Advisor Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation

This panel discussion will take place on 12/1/16 from 11:30am-1pm
Location: Milken Institute SPH Auditorium – 100 950 New Hampshire Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20052

This event is organized by the GWU AcademyHealth Student Chapter and is co-hosted by the Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics. A light lunch will be provided for the first 100 people who RSVP. Attending this event can count towards one hour of professional enhancement.