Global Health

Global Health professionals use their analytical, programmatic and evaluation skills to impact the health and wellness of communities around the world. They primarily find careers in teaching, research and consulting in work settings at home and abroad. The median annual salary is $55,000.

Sample Occupations
- Program Manager
- Health Policy Analyst
- Research Coordinator
- Country Officer
- Project Coordinator
- Development Associate
- Public Health Advisor

Sample Work Settings
- Government
- Non-profits
- Foundations
- Multilateral Government Organizations
- Consulting Firms

Potential Employers

Job Search Sites and Resources
- http://careers.apha.org/jobs
- Idealist.org
- Handshake
- Passport Careers

Professional Organizations
- American Public Health Association
- International Association of National Public Health Institutes
- Global Health Council

For more information visit: https://publichealth.gwu.edu/services/career-center/resources or email: gwsphtoptcareergwu.edu