

Maternal and Child Health – Core Competencies

1. Gather data to help assess the individual, community, organizational, and societal needs of women, children, and families.
2. Help organizations plan, implement, and evaluate strategies and programs to promote the health and well-being of women, children, and families.
3. Help organizations advocate for the health and well-being of women, children, and families.