

Health Policy and Management

Health Policy and Management professionals utilize their expertise in government affairs and public health to affect change at the local, state and national level. Professionals in this field often find themselves working to support the healthcare system through research, lobbying or program management. Alternatively, they may choose to take on leadership roles in clinical healthcare organizations to impact the challenges from the inside. The median annual salary is $60,000.

Sample Occupations

- Health Policy Analyst
- Government Affairs Managers
- Legislative Assistant
- Public Affairs Manager
- Research Analyst
- Program Manager

Sample Work Settings

- Government
- Non-profits
- Hospitals
- Consulting Firms

Potential Employers

Deloitte.

MATHEMATICA
Policy Research

Job Search Sites and Resources

- <http://careers.apha.org/jobs>
- Usajobs.gov
- Gogovernment.org
- Opajobs.org
- Handshake
- Passport Careers

Professional Organizations

- American Public Health Association
- National Association of City and County Health Officials
- Associations of State and Territorial Health Officials