

A5. Degree Offerings in Schools of Public Health

A school of public health offers a professional public health master's degree (e.g., MPH) in at least three concentrations representing at least three distinct sub-disciplinary areas in public health and public health doctoral degree programs (academic or professional) in at least two concentrations representing at least two distinct sub-disciplinary areas in public health. A school may offer more degrees or concentrations at either degree level.

- 1) Affirm that the school offers professional public health master's degree concentrations in at least three areas and public health doctoral degree programs of study in at least two areas. Template Intro-1 may be referenced for this purpose.

GWSPH offers bachelor, dual degree, master and doctoral level degrees, both academic and professional offerings, including public health and non-public health, across a number of majors, program areas and concentrations, easily satisfying CEPH criteria for diversity of program programs. See Template Intro-1.

- 2) An official catalog or bulletin that lists the degrees offered by the school.

The official catalog, known as the GW Bulletin, is available online.
